

Pre- celebration of International day of Girl Child

International Day of the Girl, a day selected by the United Nations in 2012 to highlight the challenges girls faces around the world. According to the UN, the day promotes the "empowerment" and “Security” against sexual harassment and violence of the roughly 1.1 billion young girls currently living in the world.

Pre- celebration of International day of Girl Child,2018 was celebrated on 6th October,2018 by the Women cell Committee of Uka Tarsadia University by organizing poster competition on the theme “ Save Girl Child/ Beti Bachao”. This innovative step was initiated by Dr. Nipam Chauhan, Head, Women Cell, UTU and coordinated by Ms. Shraddha Saha and other members of Women Cell, UTU. Around 16 students of various institutes, including C. G. Bakta Institute of Biotechnology actively participated in the poster making competition. Ms. Kaksha Savaliya student of Int. M Sc. Biotechnology secured first place in the poster making competition.

Ms. Shraddha Saha

Women Cell Coordinator

C. G. Bhakta Institute of Biototechnology

