Folk Dance competition

As a part of AzadikaAmritMahotsav celebration, Dance club of UkaTarsadia University has organized folk dance competition on 18th September, 2021. Folk dances of Gujarat and Chhattisgarh were invited from various departments of UTU. C. G. Bhakta Institute of Biotechnology has participated with 5 entries (41 students and 12 faculties); out of which 1 was representing Chhattisgarh folk dance and remaining 4 have performed folk dances of Gujarat with variety of forms like, Raasgarba, Prachinsherigarba, ArvachinGarba and Gajjiyo.

Out of 15 entries in competition, the Chhattisgarh folk dance represented by the students of CGBIBT, UTU has occupied winning position. In the act along with various props such as Mandar, Bamboo stick, datardu, supdu, topli, bajot, manjira, Chhattisgarhi Maya devipicture, peacock feather, gunchu, anaj (rice), green grass (as a rice plant), aartithali, students have performed GendiNach, Karma Nach and RautNach as Karma Festival. This dance is usually dedicated to the farmers who grow rice and during the harvest they perform this dance in front of Goddess Chhattisgarhi Maya. The temple of Chhattisgarhi Maya is situated on the Dungargarh hills. The words of the song "MandraBaje Re" Mandar means drum.

The Prachin Sheri Garba performed by Faculties and research scholars of C. G. Bhakta Institute of Biotechnology has secured Runners up position. The lyrics of Garba were "Maa Taro GarboJakamjol". The performance was executed as a worship by graceful women in traditional attire (Gujarati Saree and (floral) veni, etc.), along with live singers and instrument (dhol, Harmonium) players around traditional props such as diya and Matajigarbo (Matki) as a symbol of "Maa Shakti". The performance was acknowledged as the actual folk dance by the Judge.
